Artistic Framing

The frame may make or mar the picture—style, material, color, size and appropriateness all enter into the problem. Picture framing is therefore more of an art than simply a mechanical task. We especially pride ourselves upon our knowledge of the "fitness of things" and, if you will let us frame that picture for you, you will appreciate just what expert work means.

Fashion Show at San Francisco.

The "Revue des Modes," to be given at Scottish Rite Hall on the evenings of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 1, 2 and 3, for the benefit of the French wounded, promises to strike a new note in entertainments. The committee in charge of the "revue," consisting of Mesdames Walter S. Martin, Charles Templeton Crocker, George T. Cameron, C. Frederick Kohl and Augustus Taylor is determined to create a notable fashion show, one that will begin a new era in smart philanthropic events. The costumes will be furnished by San Francisco's most exclusive firms, which have hitherto refused to appear in fashion shows. The gowns, hats, furs, jewels and other paraphernalia of milady's wardrobe are being designed in London and Paris, especially for this occasion. The models will be society maids and matrons, with the exception of the matinee intimate, when the frills and fancies will be displayed by professional models for the exclusive gaze of milady. The "revue" will be put on in the same manner as in the French revues in Paris. A compere, personified by one of San Francisco's talented bachelors, will introduce each number with quip and jest, the lines of the skit being written by a well known librettist of the Bohemian Club. The costumes will be introduced by living pictures. —San Francisco News Letter.

California Activities.

With the unusually brilliant festivities of the holiday season past, society this past week has been settling down in California, possibly to make ready for a burst of splendor for the days before Lent, although, of late years, it must be conceded that the penitential season no longer stops the gaiety, only changing its appearance to the smaller, more intimate gatherings, which, after all, bring a pleasure all their own as a relief after the convention and restriction of the formal affairs.

However, so far, nothing very large nor brilliant, except the assembly ball masque, which took place January 21. On the night of January 8, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Anderson, who were here on an extended visit, out are now visiting in Sacramento, entertained a dozen guests at dinner, who were bidden as a farewell courtesy for Mr. and Mrs. David S. Wasserman, who left Sacramento recently for a trip to the East, on which they will be gone for a month or so. The table was very pretty, and a special feature was the place cards, which were local views, which the hostess gathered on a recent visit here.

Kindergartners to Give Entertainment.

On the afternoon of February 19 and the evening of February 24, the ladies of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association will give an entertainment in three parts at the Opera House. Decision to participate in the Carnival was reached at the last meeting of the organization. First of the three events will be a short play under the direction of William Lewers, whose ability in work of this sort has already been demonstrated to Honolulu audiences.

Following the play there will be a series of songs and dances under the direction of Madame Foret.

Third on the entertainment is a Peacock Ballet in charge of Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, Miss Betty Case and L. Young Corretthers.

Refreshments will be served in the vacant lot adjoining the Opera House, Mrs. Zeno K. Myers being in charge of this part of the entertainment.

Mrs. David Oleson has charge of costumes and Mrs. J. D. Guard of programs and ushers.

Moniz-Souza.
Miss Mary T. Souza, formerly of Honolulu, became the bride of Joaquim Moniz of Sacramento on the night of January 13, with Rev. Father Azevedo officiating. The ceremony was performed in the St. Elizabeth's church.

The bride was very attractive in a smart traveling costume of blue velvet with a hat to match. She was attended by Miss Mercedes Moniz. Manuel Moniz acted as best man for the groom.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moniz departed for San Francisco, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will return to Sacramento to reside and will be at home with their friends—Sacramento Union.

Mrs. J. C. McCandless Complimented.
In honor of Mrs. James McCandless (Marian Rodolph) Mrs. George Hammer gave a prettily appointed tea at the Claremont Country Club on Thursday afternoon, extending her hospitality to 25 friends. The affair was somewhat in the nature of a farewell compliment, and Mr. and Mrs. McCandless are leaving next week for San Francisco where they have taken the attractive home of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCandless, for the next three months. The latter live in Honolulu most of the year, spending their summers here at their Washington street home across the bay.—San Francisco Examiner.

Miss Margaret Center Honored.
This evening Miss Beatrice Dredge will give a dancing party to 50 of the younger set, says the San Francisco Examiner of January 7. The affair is complimentary to Miss Margaret Center of Honolulu, who is being extensively entertained on both sides of the bay during her visit with friends in San Francisco. Among the guests will be: Misses Margaret Center, Mignon Wilson, Doris Bornemann, Marlorie Bronson, Elsie Bishop, Helen Martin, Alice Buteau, Eleanor Haynes, Elana Brown, Florence Crellin, Alice Crellin, Katherine Ziegenfuss, Mayota Brown, Clare Roswell, Ruth Vincent and others.

About Mr. and Mrs. Maud.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Maud, who have been passing the last few weeks in Honolulu, are expected home in the near future, having been obliged to change their original plan of remaining for the entire winter there, because of the unusually heavy rains. On their return to this city they will be guests of Mrs. Maud's mother, Mrs. Clara L. Darling, on Clay street for a few days, and will then go south to visit the San Diego exposition and other points of interest before establishing themselves again in their home at Monterey.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mrs. Ingersoll Expected To Make Hawaiian Trip.

Mrs. Lucy W. Ingersoll, a former resident here, has returned from Salt Lake City and is expecting to sail soon for Hawaii and join her daughter who is teaching at Kohala—Highland Park (Cal.) Herald.

Mme. Melba, the famous opera singer, who was here some time ago, is being extensively entertained in Washington society. She is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont and later will be the guest of Ambassador and Lady Spring-Rice at the British embassy. Melba has a better social position than the average singer and during her recent visit to this city was entertained by many social people.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season took place at the home of Miss Sara Shepard on the eve of December 24. The house was decorated in English holly and mistletoe. Mr. Joseph and Frank Silva, recent arrivals from Honolulu, rendered Hawaiian music between games and dancing. Miss Ruth Gollinsky and Miss Audrey Miguel helped the charming hostess entertain her talented guests.—San Francisco Examiner.
